

Basic Service Contract for Elekta Neuromag® MEG

Article No : NM23454N

The Basic service contract is designed to provide your system regular proactive care and to maintain the system uptime. The Basic service contract includes technical assistance for hardware and software questions, annual planned maintenance and software fix updates. Additionally, users benefit from the discounts to the support and material pricing.