

Article No : P10105 -240

Connexion Central Opening Module with Connexion Solid Inlay

Being able to reduce attenuation in this scenario results in lower skin dose to the patient. The Connexion Central Opening Module provides a central opening where attenuation and dose build-up are minimized, allowing you to reduce skin doses. The module is supplied with a Solid Inlay.